Dear friends:

On looking over two catalogues that I have just received from Melchor García (26, San Bernardo, Madrid) I have culled a few titles which I am taking the liberty of sending to you, although you have probably already seen them. I hope that you are all very well and happy this winter. We have found Bloomington a pleasant place to live in, although we miss our friends in New York, and I miss also The Hispanic Society, of course.

With best regards, I am very sincerely yours,

E. Hill

Dr. E. C. Hills,

Bloomington, Indiana.

Dear Mr. Hills:-

I was very glad to receive your letter the other day, and I trust that you will like Bloomington.

We have all but one of the books that you sent the notices of. I thank you very much for remembering us.

Mr. Noe and Mr. Newell are in the army. We are hoping that they will be released any time now as both are in this country.

Dr. Stevenson is still in the Hispanic and he is the only one beside Mr. Savage I have seen over there. The Indian Museum has not opened yet, and the Geographical Society is a hive of industry with the government work that is being done there.

Things are going along on the terrace about as usual, and I trust that now the war is over things will begin to pick up.

Yours sincerely,
